Early Life and Career

Tina Turner was born Anna Mae Bullock on November 26, 1939, in Brownsville, Tennessee. Her parents divorced when she was young, and she was raised by her grandmother. As a child, Turner sang in church and performed at local talent shows. At the age of 17, she met Ike Turner, a blues musician who would become her husband and musical partner.

The duo formed the Ike & Tina Turner Revue in 1960. The group quickly gained popularity, and their hit singles "A Fool in Love" and "Proud Mary" reached the top of the charts. However, Turner's marriage to Ike was often volatile and abusive. In 1976, she finally left him and filed for divorce.

Solo Career

After her divorce, Turner embarked on a solo career. She released her debut album, "Tina Turns the Country On!", in 1974. The album was a commercial success, and Turner quickly established herself as a solo artist.

In 1984, Turner released her breakthrough album, "Private Dancer." The album was a global smash, and its title track became one of the biggest hits of the decade. "Private Dancer" earned Turner four Grammy Awards, including Album of the Year and Record of the Year.

Later Career and Legacy

Turner continued to release successful albums throughout the 1980s and 1990s. She also starred in several films, including "Mad Max Beyond Thunderdome" and "What's Love Got to Do with It."

In 2009, Turner retired from touring. However, she has continued to release new music and make occasional public appearances. In 2021, she was inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame for a second time, as a solo artist.

Personal Life

Turner has been married twice. Her first marriage, to Ike Turner, was marred by abuse and infidelity. Her second marriage, to German music executive Erwin Bach, has been much happier. The couple has been together since 1986.

Turner has two sons, Ike Jr. and Ronnie, from her marriage to Ike Turner. She also has two adopted sons, Michael and Craig.

Awards and Recognition

Turner has received numerous awards and accolades throughout her career. She has won 12 Grammy Awards, five American Music Awards, and two Golden Globe Awards. In 2010, she was awarded the Kennedy Center Honors.

Turner is also a member of the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame, the Grammy Hall of Fame, and the NAACP Image Award Hall of Fame.
