James Halliday, the renowned Australian wine critic and author, has spent decades exploring the diverse wine regions of his homeland, uncovering hidden gems and championing exceptional wines. His seminal work, Northwords, is a comprehensive wine compendium that serves as an indispensable guide to Australia's vast and vibrant wine landscape.

A Comprehensive Wine Encyclopedia

Northwords is a monumental undertaking, spanning over 900 pages and covering more than 1,000 wineries and 8,000 wines. It is a meticulously researched and authoritative reference work that provides a wealth of information for wine enthusiasts of all levels.

The book is divided into 12 regional chapters, each dedicated to a specific wine region of Australia. Halliday provides an in-depth overview of each region, including its history, climate, soil types, and grape varieties.

Detailed Wine Reviews

The heart of Northwords lies in Halliday's comprehensive wine reviews. Each review provides a detailed description of the wine's appearance, aroma, flavor, and palate. Halliday also includes his personal tasting notes and ratings for each wine.

Halliday's reviews are known for their accuracy, objectivity, and depth of knowledge. He is widely respected in the wine industry for his discerning palate and his ability to articulate the subtle nuances of each wine.

Hidden Gems and Exceptional Wines

One of the most valuable aspects of Northwords is Halliday's ability to uncover hidden gems and exceptional wines that may not be well-known to the general public.

Halliday travels extensively throughout Australia, visiting wineries both large and small. He is always on the lookout for wines that demonstrate exceptional quality and value.

Northwords is filled with these hidden gems, wines that offer a unique expression of their terroir and a glimpse into the potential of Australian wine.

An Indispensable Guide

Northwords is an indispensable guide for anyone interested in Australian wine. It is a comprehensive reference work that provides a wealth of information about the country's diverse wine regions and exceptional wines.

Whether you are a wine enthusiast, a collector, or a professional in the industry, Northwords is a valuable resource that will enhance your knowledge and appreciation of Australian wine.
